Trade, Investment and Development of APEC Economies

The University of Hong Kong
Fall 2019
Professor K.C. Fung
Visiting Professor, University of Hong Kong
Professor, University of California, Santa Cruz, USA

This course covers various timely, current topics related to international trade, international investment and economic development of various members of APEC (Asia-Pacific Economic Co-operation). Economies to be covered include Japan, South Korea (Republic of Korea), Australia, New Zealand, Hong Kong, Taiwan (Chinese Taipei), China (People’s Republic of China), Singapore and others.

Class requirements: 1 in-class Midterm (50%) and 1 take-home Final (50%). Sample questions will be provided ahead of the exams.

Class materials will be posted online.